

Reading Comprehension: Two More Stories

Same level as sheet 1, two new stories. The last question in each set needs thinking, not copying.

Name:

Date:

1 Read the story, then answer

Keep the story open while you answer. Going back to look is allowed.

Six Candles

Riya is six today. Mama made a cake and put six candles on top. All her friends sang for her. Then Riya blew out the candles in one big puff.

- a. Who made the cake?
- b. What did Riya's friends do?
- c. Why were there six candles?
- d. Now read the story out loud. Tick here:

2 Read the story, then answer

The last question is not written in the story. You have to work it out.

Over the Wall

Vikram and Sam went out to play cricket. Vikram hit the ball hard and it went over the wall. Sam had to go next door to ask for it. The man gave it back with a smile.

- a. What game did they play?
- b. Who hit the ball hard?
- c. Why did Sam go next door?
- d. Now read the story out loud. Tick here:

Parent tip: before you mark anything, ask "how did you know?" even when the answer is right. Your child should be able to put a finger on the line. Answers are on zigzu.co/pages/reading-comprehension-for-class-1