

Singular and Plural: All Of It Together

Every rule mixed, the words that never change, and whole sentences.

Name: _____

Date: _____

1 Write the plural. All the rules are mixed up.

- a. one donkey → six _____ b. one wife → two _____
c. one hobby → three _____ d. one tomato → five _____

2 These words do not change at all

Write the same word again.

- a. one sheep → nine _____ b. one deer → four _____
c. one fish → six _____

3 Fill the blank from the word bank

These words are always plural. They never lose the s.

scissors · trousers · spectacles

- a. Dadaji cleaned his _____ with a soft cloth.
b. Cut the paper with the small _____ on my desk.
c. Papa ironed his blue _____ last night.

4 Now go the other way. Write the one word.

- a. ten leaves → one _____ b. four cities → one _____
c. six wives → one _____ d. two potatoes → one _____

5 Write the whole sentence for many

Use the number in brackets. Change every word that has to change.

- a. This is a big box. (four) _____
b. That was a sharp knife. (two) _____
c. One sheep was resting under the tree. (six) _____

Parent tip: in exercise 5 the naming word is the easy part. Watch the small words next to it: this becomes these, is becomes are, was becomes were.
